Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the Rent Freeze Program?

The Rent Freeze Program refers to the Senior Citizen Rent Increase Exemption (SCRIE) and Disability Rent Increase Exemption (DRIE) program.

2. What is the one-third income eligibility check and how can it affect my SCRIE benefit?

If you applied to and you were approved for the SCRIE program as a new applicant after July 1, 2015, your renewal application is subject to a one-third income eligibility check. The Department of Finance will add up the annual income for you and all household members and divide this amount by 36. The result is one-third of your monthly household income. We then compare your one-third monthly household income to your new rent on your renewal lease as well as to your frozen rent. If one-third of your monthly household income is greater than your new rent then you would no longer be eligible for SCRIE benefit. If one-third of your monthly household income is less than your new rent but greater than your frozen rent, we will increase your frozen rent to one-third of your monthly household income.

If you entered the SCRIE program on or prior to July 1, 2015, your renewal application will not be subject to the one-third income eligibility check.

3. When am I required to renew my benefit?

All SCRIE recipients are required to file a renewal application every year or every two years. Your approval orders will always list the benefit period. SCRIE renewal applications are mailed approximately 60 days prior to a recipient's benefit expiration. If you do not receive a renewal application in the mail for any reason, renewal applications are available by visiting nyc.gov/rentfreeze or by calling 311 and requesting that one be mailed to you.

4. What happens if the primary benefit recipient moves?

If the primary benefit recipient moves to another rent-regulated apartment, the primary benefit recipient must file an Apartment Benefit Transfer Application to transfer your exemption to the new apartment.

5. I live in a rent-stabilized apartment. What if I pay a rent lower than the legal rent amount listed on my lease? And how is my frozen rent calculated?

If you have a preferential rent agreement with your landlord, the rent you pay may be lower than your frozen rent amount. You can continue to pay the lower amount for as long as you have the preferential rent agreement with your landlord.

We generally freeze your rent at the legal rent amount, with the following exceptions:

- i) If your lease is accompanied by a preferential rent lease rider that explicitly states that the lower rent will remain for the lifetime of your tenancy, your rent will be frozen at the prior preferential rent amount or 1/3 of your monthly income, whichever is greater.
- ii) If you live in a low-income housing tax credit (LIHTC) unit and you provide a LIHTC rent rider, your rent will be frozen at your prior LIHTC rent amount or 1/3 of your monthly income, whichever is greater.

6. For the purpose of the Rent Freeze Program, who is considered a household member?

Household members are considered to be the primary applicant and any person who permanently resides in the apartment. A bona fide roomer, boarder or subtenant who is not related to the head of household is not considered a household member. You must list all members of the household on the application and disclose their income for the prior year (the year before you submit your application). If any household members did not have income in the prior year, you must indicate it on the application and submit proof of no income. Note that only household members that have been listed on a prior application can apply for a benefit takeover.

7. Who is NOT considered a household member?

Boarders who have a rental agreement and pay rent to you are not considered household members. Family members are not considered boarders. Note: boarders are not eligible for a benefit takeover. You do not have to list boarders on your application; however you must disclose the amount of rent that is paid to you by submitting a letter from the boarder specifying how much money they pay you monthly. DO NOT submit the income that the boarder received.

8. What if I am not able to physically sign the application?

A person with an authorized power of attorney (POA) or court-appointed guardian may sign documents on behalf of the primary beneficiary. Please submit the power of attorney authorization or court order along with the application so that SCRIE can keep the information on file and ensure that copies of all SCRIE correspondence are sent to the POA or guardian.

9. What are applicable deductions?

Federal, State, City, and Social Security taxes paid are applicable deductions.

10. What is considered income that I must report to determine eligibility?

Below is a list of income sources that the SCRIE program considers. If you and your household members receive any income from any of these sources, you will have to enter this information on the Income Worksheet provided with the application and attach required proof of documentation as indicated.

All Rent Freeze Program applicants who have received an official exemption approval, denial, or revocation notice have the right to get help resolving concerns with their SCRIE/DRIE application and benefit. The SCRIE/DRIE Ombudsperson can identify and resolve issues with your application or benefit after you have completed the application process. You may contact them by visiting the DOF website at nyc.gov/contactscrieombuds for help with SCRIE or nyc.gov/contactdrieombuds for help with DRIE.

15. What can I do if I missed the six months deadline to file my renewal application or any other deadline related to the Rent Freeze Program (RFP) program?

If you needed more time to submit your application or meet any other deadline due to a disability or physical or mental impairment, you can request additional time. If you need help or have questions regarding a disability or requesting additional time, please call 311 and ask for the Department of Finance's Disability Service Facilitator; contact nyc.gov/contactdofeeo; or visit our office at 66 John Street, 3rd Floor, New York, N.Y., Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Even if you do not have a disability or physical or mental impairment, you may still qualify if you missed the deadline because of exceptional circumstances during the time to file your application and your benefit expired fewer than 12 months ago. If you were hospitalized for a temporary medical condition, or your apartment was damaged by fire, flood, a natural catastrophe, or other exceptional circumstances occurred, you may submit a statement of the specific circumstances along with any documentation of your claim with your application. If you have any questions, please contact 311 and ask for the SCRIE/DRIE unit, or visit nyc.gov/contactscrie or nyc.gov/contactdrie.

16. What are my options if I have a permanent loss of income?

If there has been a permanent loss of 20% or more of the income you reported on your last approved application, you may apply for a redetermination of your frozen rent by filing a Redetermination Application, which can be found on our website at nyc.gov/rentfreeze. You must provide proof of your current income with the Redetermination Application. NOTE: The loss of income must be considered permanent.

17. What happens if the primary benefit recipient passes away or has permanently moved into a nursing home?

If the primary benefit recipient passes away, has permanently moved into a nursing home or has otherwise permanently vacated the apartment, a household member who meets the eligibility criteria for the Rent Freeze Program, who has been listed on a previous application, and has been granted succession rights may qualify for a benefit takeover. A benefit takeover application should be filed within 6 months of the primary benefit recipient passing away or moving, or 90 days after the Department of Finance sends a revocation notice, whichever date is later.

If you are a remaining household member AND meet all the eligibility requirements for SCRIE or DRIE, you must submit the following:

For yourself:

A benefit takeover application AND

A lease/rental agreement reflecting you as the tenant of record or co-tenant OR

A letter from your building management specifying that you have succession rights to the apartment OR

A court order granting you succession rights to the apartment

For primary benefit recipient:

Proof that the primary benefit recipient has passed away by providing a death certificate. For a primary benefit recipient who has permanently moved out of the apartment, proof may include a letter from a nursing home, a lease or letter from your landlord or managing agent, or federal, state or local government issued ID reflecting the new address.

18. How can I obtain forms?

20. What happens if I am over the income eligibility for a renewal period?

If your benefit ended because your annual household income is over $50,000 or your rent is less than 1/3 of your monthly household income for a renewal period, you may reapply for the program in the future if you believe you qualify. If your income decreases in the next calendar year, you may qualify to restore your old frozen rent (legislation effective September 2016). To reapply, please submit an initial application in the next calendar year.
